

"Running with Horses...."

These words gripped my imagination. It speaks of strength, determination, energy & intensity. For some this sounds as if it's meant for other people. They feel weak and worn out already. Life has dealt them so many disappointments, they've lost hope and strength seems to fail them. So when we speak about running and strength it has a negative effect, rather than to motivate and spur them on.

Then there are those who relish the opportunity to test where they stand in the grander scheme of things... those for whom no challenge or test of strength is too great or small. Those who don't have it in their vocabulary to say: "I don't know how to do it. I can't do it!" No, they say: "I haven't done it before but I'll try." Or: "I'm willing to learn how to..." Those are the ones who will run with horses.

Jeremiah complains to the Lord about the people who seem to be prospering. Comparing himself with them. Not new, is it? We do the same. We moan and groan about what others are accomplishing, what they're doing right or wrong and so we go on and on, expecting sympathy. But see how the Lord responds. "So, Jeremiah, if you're worn out in this footrace with men, what makes you think you can race against horses? And if you can't keep your wits during times of calm, what's going to happen when troubles break loose like the Jordan in flood? Jer 12:5 [MSG]

So dear Friends, trust God for strength and push through. Paul says; "Since I know it is all for Christ's good, I am quite content with my weaknesses and with insults, hardships, persecutions, and calamities. For when I am weak, then I am strong." 2 Cor 12:10. [NLT]

There's a beautiful song that says, "His strength is perfect when all other strength is gone, when I can't carry on He'll carry me."
